October 19, 2014
Council Minutes
Approved November 23, 2014

Pastor Clairnel led us in prayer and President-Lee Ann Jestis called the meeting to order at 11:30.

Attending: Brad Belew, Steve Diederich, Shari Bullard, Bailey Lenger, Benny Jestis and guest on- coming council member Nancy Lenger.

The September minutes were reviewed and approved by motion made by Steve and second by Bailey. All ayes received. The treasures report was reviewed and approved by motion made by Shari and second by Brad. All ayes received. The Pastors report was received.

OLD BUSINESS

~Trash – Shari reported T-MAC cannot commit to coming from Christian School Rd route unless they get more business in Hartsburg area. The manager took Shari's number and is going to try to work on getting some more clients in the area. Shari will call Advanced Disposable to see why our monthly bill is 3 times a month larger bill than T-MAC would be.

NEW BUSINESS

~Front doors – Orion offered to stain the front doors. Lee Ann is going to check is stain is for wood or metal, as the doors are metal.

~5th Sunday dinner – November 30 – Council will host and we will have church members bring pot luck.

~Council Retreat with new members—November 23 we will meet for retreat with oncoming members Nancy Lenger, Cricket Hackmann and Fred Klippel. It will be held following church at Jim and Shari Bullards. (19201 Jemerson Creek)

~T-shirt for PUCC—Bailey is heading up t-shirts and anyone interested in expressing color or style opinions, catch up with Bailey.

Reports of Ministries

~None from Children and Youth, Worship, or Caring and Connecting

~Local Church-Benny report the person at Stover's lost the order and by the time she realized it was lost it was too late to get the tile here in time for installation before cooler weather. It will be installed on the front steps this Spring.

~Wider Church-Pavilion-- Brad reported two $50 gift cards were purchased from Coltons for the 2 men that volunteered to help on the Pavilion that were not members of Peace. The families with memorial donations will be brought together to discuss next steps and to assist with what direction to take for completing the end and the ceiling and soffit.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:20 with members reciting the Lord's Prayer.
